Oxford County Advertiser.

FRIDAY, JULY 22, 1887.

Entered as Second Class mail matter.

The Bear Wants Money.

We have sent out statements to those who are a year or more in arrears for the ADVERTISER. We need the money. It is impossible to do business without money. Your promises to pay are good only when accompanied with the cash. We have made a special offer to all who are in arrears. Money is wanted.

P.S.—Those in arrears are forbidden the privilege of lending the ADVERTISER to their neighbors.

Gen. Butler and party arrived at Portland Springs Monday. In the evening an informal reception was extended to him.

Says an exchange:—Who is so over-anxious to have his name kept out of the paper, is just the man who doesn't care for the public. Ask him for a local notice and he will tell you no one reads the paper but just let him be found flitting with some other man's wife, waiting off with funds not his own, or try to tell on a lamp-post at night, and he will climb seventeen pairs of stairs and beg of his benevolent friends that the few he sees should not make a difference in the minds of a great many men whose eye is good, when an article is to appear in public print.

NORTH WATERLOO.

Mrs. M. L. Houghton, Annie Houghton and Mrs. J. P. Sylvester left Portland Monday for Waterville to pass a few weeks among the hills of old Oxford.

Mrs. J. F. Rice has gone to Paris Hill to spend a few days with her friends.

Wm. Walker, who has been stopping at J. F. Rice's since last fall has gone to Boston for a short time.

Homer Tibbels has moved into N. C. Brackett's room.

Rita and Jessie Carter of Andover, Mass., are visiting at Mrs. Lydia Swain's and other friends in this place and Albany.

Hattie Anderson from Massachusetts is stopping at H. P. Elliott's.

Mr. Harvey, who makes a trip through this part of the country every year, is stopping at Will Allen's. He is a teacher from Massachusetts.

OXFORD.

The friends of Fred White are glad to hear that his health is improving. He has been a great sufferer the past two months.

Minnie Harding of Bethel, has finished her school at Exeter and is stopping a few days at H. F. West's.

We hear that David C. Brooks, the oldest man in town, is in feeble health.

NORTH NORWICH.

A. W. Jenkins, who has had a lame arm for the past six months, had it cured July 17th.

Vera Lord has been visiting in this section late.

Mrs. P. P. Jenkins from Newtonville, is boarding at Rollin Town's.

Messrs. Jenkins cut grass on Mrs. Woodfield's farm last week. Her yard is full and more to do with this and last year's hay. Mrs. W.'s son from N. Y. is visiting her mother.

Mrs. Fred York is very sick.

Geo. Carter has returned to the shoe shop.

Lester Knightly is home from Waterville, Mass., where he has been for the past six weeks.

Herbert Millett is cutting the grass on Willow Street's farm.

Joshua Jackson has bought a nice horse of Nelson Judd's.

Mrs. Adie French Pearson presented the Sabbath School with a nice book written by her husband, Mr. Pearson.

Five farmers near here have each bought a Champion horse-race of Wyan this season.

It is expected the Prestiding Elder will preach at the Chapel July 24th, at 2:30 P. M.

Horace Hussey is a very ingenious young man. He has lately made a turning lathe, also a secretary, tables, etc. He only works on Saturday and Sunday.

David Flint's health is very poor this summer.

The Sabbath School at North Norway has been invited to picnic with the village school July 28th at Gibson's Grove.

Henry Westcott and Oliver Merrill are at work for Henry Judd's farm.

Nellie Hussey is visiting friends at South Paris.

HEBRO.

Abel S. Downard died Monday morning, aged 72 years. He leaves a wife, one daughter and two sons to mourn his loss. The community with respect and worthy citizen. His son Fred, who resides in Minneapolis, Minn., was here last week. Funeral services occurred at the church Tuesday P. M., conducted by Rev. C. E. Harding.

Samuel Richardson came near losing his mare by getting cut in the side. Lucy Lufkin has just closed a successful term of school at East Rumford.

Katie B. Hovatt, eleven years old, has attended school at East Rumford the past term, not missing a day nor being tardy, and carried home, the last day, a very fine present from her teacher for leaving off at the head of her spelling class the most times. That is pretty well for a little girl that has to walk two and a half miles every night and morning.

NORWAY LAKE.

By the sounds that came from across the water all night long, recently, one would think the Aborigines had returned after a century and were having a war dance on the shores of their beautiful lake. The music was of the most primitive kind, and the night closed in peace and rest.

Mrs. C. H. Partridge went to Boston last Saturday to the funeral of her son, Neal, D. H. Partridge, her sister's child. Little Neal was a good Christian boy and worked hard for his strength to help his mother in her early widowhood, and it is a sad day for his mother and little sister.
